Local News.

1897.

Happy New Year.

Warm winter weather.

School begins next Monday.

F. L. Woodward went to St. Joe Thursday.

We were visited by a rain storm Thursday.

Mrs. Fannie Fairbank drove in from Auburn last Saturday.

Green Burgess has recovered from his attack of sickness.

The boys rang the old year out and the new year in Thursday night.

Mrs. Alex. Maxwell, of South Auburn, visited Nemaha friends Wednesday and Thursday.

Mrs. Cora Crother took her Christmas dinner with Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Maddox, of Auburn.

Mrs. S. A. Scovill and Mrs. Robt. Post paid THE ADVERTISER office a pleasant call Wednesday.

W. H. Stowell, editor of the Auburn Post, located in Nemaha a few hours Thursday afternoon of last week.

Wm. Bridge, of Peru, called at this office Saturday, in company with his son, S. F. Bridge, with whom he had spent Christmas.

The ladies' aid society of the M. E. church have bought a street lamp, which has been put up on the corner north of the church.

S. Gilbert concluded the room he is having built for the bank was too small, and has had it made ten feet longer, the size now being 14x30.

A basket dinner was held at the school house Thursday of last week, by the pupils, parents, teachers and friends. A pleasant time is reported.

Mrs. Eathart, of Horton, Kansas, arrived in Nemaha Wednesday night of last week, and will make her home this winter with her daughter, Mrs. R. J. Duff.

The entertainment that was to have been given New Years eve by members of the Christian and Methodist Sunday schools has been indefinitely postponed.

Mrs. Owens, of Wymore, is visiting her brother, T. J. Chambers, her sister Mrs. Walter Maxwell, and other relatives and friends in Nemaha and vicinity.

J. H. Seid, who has been advertising his fine Duroc Jersey and Poland China male pigs, tells us he has sold all but two, and orders his ad taken out. He has two Duroc Jersey pigs for sale yet.

Geo. E. Dye, who is now a resident of Auburn, was in town a few days ago, and said he got lost, as he could not find the postoffice or ADVERTISER office either without considerable hunting and inquiry. He should visit us oftener.

The Brownville Masonic lodge gave a supper last Saturday night, as is their custom on St. John's night. We were an invited guest, but greatly to our regret were unable to be present. Sunday morning Rev. C. H. Gilmore preached a Masonic sermon at the Methodist church at Brownville.

All persons indebted to the undersigned are requested to call at once and settle by cash or note, as all accounts must be settled by January 1st.
ANDREW AYNES.

We will send THE ADVERTISER, the New York Tribune, the Toledo Blade and the Chicago Inter Ocean, all four papers one year for only $2.10.

50,000 bushels Ear Corn wanted at market price.

At Titus & Williams store room. H. CARSE.

Dr. J. L. Melvin.
Office at residence, south of Minick store building.

Miss Lillian Wheeler, of Lincoln, arrived in Nemaha Tuesday evening, on a visit to her aunt, Mrs. C. Galbraith, and her many friends in Nemaha.

V. P. Peabody, as administrator of Everett Larimore's estate, will have a public sale of the stock, farm implements, grain, etc., at the I. N. Cooper farm, on Wednesday, Jan. 13th.

The body of Mrs. Chatfield, a former resident of Brownville for many years, was brought back to that place for burial Wednesday. Mrs. Chatfield has been living in the east for a number of years.

The Nemaha camp of the Woodmen of the World elected officers for the ensuing year Tuesday night. All the old officers were reelected with the exception of physician, Dr. J. L. Melvin being elected to that position.

Charley Woodward returned home Wednesday night of last week, from Lincoln, where he has been attending the Lincoln Business College. Charley has completed the shorthand course, graduating at the head of his class.

Owing to an unfortunate accident that occurred to Mr. Jarley—who, while hunting ducks in South Carolina, was beset by bumble bees, and after moaning sixteen times for every sting, expired in great agony—Mrs. Jarley was compelled to cancel her engagement to exhibit her celebrated wax works at W. R. C. hall Christmas night.

We worked in the office almost all day Wednesday without any fire and with the door open, and Thursday we had very little fire and had the door open part of the time. What is the use of going south for the winter when this kind of weather continues up to the first of January? Of course we will have lots of winter weather yet, but we will certainly not have a very long winter.

The following officers were elected at the M. E. Sunday school last Sunday, for the ensuing six months:
Superintendent—Dr. Keeling.
Assistant Superintendent—W. W. Sanders.

Secretary—Veva Clark.
Assistant Secretary—Leslie Woodward.
Treasurer—Mrs. M. H. Taylor.
Organist—Miss Mabel Brogan.
Assistant Organist—Miss Lillie M. Beck.
Librarian—Miss May Kecker.
Assistant Librarian—Miss Bessie Frost.

CHRISTMAS IN NEMAHA.

Christmas was passed very quietly in Nemaha. The hard times interfered seriously with the number and value of presents given, but our merchants report a good trade.

At the Christian church a Christmas tree and the usual Christmas exercises were given Christmas eve. A realistic old fashioned chimney through which Santa Claus made his appearance was one of the delightful features of the evening. Santa Claus was a huge success.

At the Methodist church a Christmas tree was also the principal feature of the Christmas eve entertainment. The exercises consisted mainly of a cantata entitled "Santa Claus and Mother Goose," enacted by the Sunday school children principally, and the performers reflected great credit on the training given them by Miss Maud Minick.

N. B. Anderson's Cash Store

Nemaha, Nebraska.

It is an admitted fact that every good farmer should take at least one farm paper. The western farmer should take a western farm paper. The most practical one is Wallace's Farmer, published weekly at Des Moines, Iowa, at $1 per year. Every number is worth the subscription price. You pay in advance and the paper stops when the time is out. We will send Wallace's Farmer and THE ADVERTISER both one year for $1.75. You will get a sample copy free by writing for it.

SUBSCRIBING FOR METROPOLITAN PAPERS.

The coming year will be crowded with big news events and happenings, the details of which everyone interested in national and foreign affairs will want to read. The best western newspaper published is the semi-weekly Republic of St. Louis. It is only $1 a year, and for that amount it will send two papers a week to any address for one year. The Republic daily is $6 a year, $3 for six months or $1.50 for three months.

Take the wagonette when in Auburn for any part of the city. Easy riding. Quick time. All trains met. John McElhaney, proprietor.

SOMETHING FOR NOTHING.

In addition to giving two papers each week the Semi-Weekly State Journal now gives to each person sending $1, a free premium. You can have your choice of the Toledo Blade or New York Tribune. Or you can have any two of these papers free: Poultry News, Swine Breeder, Farm News and Womankind. Hundreds of other free premiums, such as a splendid atlas, State Journal almanac, United States history, etc. Send postal card request for premium list. You should read the Journal during the legislature, no matter what other papers you read at other times. You must send your money direct to the State Journal, Lincoln, Nebraska, to get any of these free premiums.

Miss Harris, "the milliner," South Auburn.

WOOD AND CORN.

We wish all our delinquent subscribers who can furnish us wood or corn would bring the same in at once, as we need it. Either old or new corn will be taken.

W. W. Sanders, Notary Public. Pensions papers of all kinds made up accurately. Legal documents drawn up. All business given prompt and careful attention.
